

Job opportunities at The Christian Institute

The Christian Institute is a registered charity, committed to promoting historic, biblical Christianity in the public arena. We are seeking new staff members to join our team.

COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

The successful candidate will have excellent written skills and be able to communicate the work of the Institute to the general public in a clear, concise and informative manner. The post involves giving a Christian perspective on the news for multiple formats quickly and accurately. Awareness of current affairs is essential.

FINANCE ADMINISTRATOR

We are seeking candidates who can apply their biblical faith to operating the Institute's financial systems with integrity. The successful candidate will be organised and computer literate. An understanding of bookkeeping and financial systems is desirable. The post also involves communicating with supporters and the public by email, letter and telephone. Part-time employment will be considered.

EDUCATION ADMINISTRATOR

We are seeking to expand The Christian Institute's education team, to assist teachers, parents and governors. An ability to apply Christian discernment, discretion and excellent oral and written communication skills are essential. Knowledge of education issues and the law relating to education would be an advantage.

MULTIMEDIA DESIGNER

This is a great opportunity for an all-round print and digital designer to use their talents to promote the Christian faith. The ideal applicant will be creative with a demonstrable flair for implementing visual ideas within short deadlines. The role will involve applying your Christian faith to editorial decisions. It may include website development.

Candidates for the posts will be Christians who are highly motivated to apply biblical principles to the family, the world of work and public policy. The roles demand considerable commitment. The posts are full time (unless stated) and will be based at the Institute's headquarters in Newcastle upon Tyne. Please contact The Christian Institute for more details. The closing date for applications is 12 noon on Tuesday, 1 October 2019. Interviews will take place between 21 and 24 October 2019.
