Kingsley & Co is a Victorian Steam Punk Explorer themed literacy project, bookshop and café based in the Strand shopping centre Bootle. The aim of the project is to encourage children and families to engage with books and stories to help improve their literacy skills, thus improving mental health and wellbeing and improving life prospects. We are looking for someone with a passion for literature and the skills and ability to manage this creative and dynamic project.

If you think that you are ready for the challenge why not apply today.
