

PERSON SPECIFICATION – What kind of person are we looking for?

Title: Children & Families Minister

Location: St Michael & All Angels' Church, Farnsfield

Personal Qualities and Experience

The person we're looking for to join our team will be a committed Christian, biblically rooted and open to the work of the Holy Spirit who:

- Identifies with and is excited by the mission and values of St Michael's Church.
- Has some good experience of working with children and their families in a church capacity.
- Is passionate about seeing families and younger children grow in their relationship with Jesus and is discerning and adaptable in their approach.
- Has good interpersonal skills and the ability to communicate faith to families and children both up front and one-to-one.
- Is prayerful and committed to growing as a disciple of Jesus themselves as well as able to demonstrate a living relationship with God to others.
- Has good theological understanding and a strong biblical grounding.
- Has an openness towards ministering and leading in the gifts of the Spirit.
- Is able to work alongside others as part of a team, have fun, and be prepared to 'muck in' at times.
- Is able to effectively lead a team of volunteers – identifying the gifts of others and equipping, releasing and supporting them in ministry.
- Is able to take direction but also take initiative and has good organisational skills.
- Has a good basic level of competence in IT and in engaging with others through social media.
- Is willing to make St Michaels their main worshipping community and to actively participate in areas of church life as part of the church family.
- Has knowledge of Safeguarding & Risk Assessment requirements (or a willingness to learn) and is able to work within the Church Safeguarding policy.
