

Job opportunities at The Christian Institute

The Christian Institute is a registered charity, committed to promoting historic, biblical Christianity in the public arena.

RESEARCH ASSISTANT

Candidates will be Christian graduates, highly accurate and with good communication skills. Applicants must be able to analyse, evaluate and summarise from a biblical perspective information from a wide variety of sources, including statistical data. Those with expertise in Law, Medicine or Statistics may be at an advantage.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS ASSISTANT

Candidates will have significant organisational ability and be able to respond readily to changing circumstances and expectations. Christian discernment and excellent oral and written skills will be essential in order to communicate Christian beliefs to the public, including via social media, and to represent the Institute to public figures. Previous experience in politics or public affairs may be an advantage.

Candidates for both posts will be Christians who are highly motivated to apply biblical principles to the family, the world of work and public policy. The roles demand considerable commitment. Each post will be based at the Institute's headquarters in Newcastle upon Tyne. Please contact The Christian Institute for more details. The closing date for applications is 12 noon on Tuesday, 30 March 2021. Interviews will take place between 27 and 28 April 2021.

Would you like to work at The Christian Institute? If the roles above are not suitable but you think you may have something to offer, please complete an application form. Candidates will have spiritual maturity, sound judgement and a desire to serve the cause of Christ through our ministry.
