

FAMILIES OUTREACH WORKER

Essential Skills

Person Specification			To be evidenced in
Attribute: Ministry and Giftings	Essential	Desirable	Application Form	Interview	Exercise	Reference
A committed Christian faith with a heart for mission and social action.	✓
An ability to work with families and young people from all backgrounds within the missional context of the new housing estates	✓
A passion for working with families and young people, to promote their personal and spiritual wellbeing	✓
A clear pioneering and missional gift, being able to work with people across a diverse range of beliefs or none, and seeking to collaborate with other churches and community organisations in town.	✓

FAMILIES OUTREACH WORKER

Essential Skills

Person Specification			To be evidenced in
Attribute: Project Delivery and Management	Essential	Desirable	Application Form	Interview	Exercise	Reference
Be self-motivated and able to work collaboratively as part of a team.	✓
Excellent interpersonal and pastoral skills.	✓
Understand the importance of safeguarding and safe practice principles when working with children, young people and vulnerable adults.	✓
Ability to communicate effectively with stakeholders and local community partners.	✓
Ability to manage varied and conflicting priorities.	✓
An entrepreneurial self-starter who can initiate and manage their own workload.	✓
Excellent time and project delivery skills to set and meet project deadlines.	✓
Motivational leadership skills especially with volunteers		✓
Excellent organisational and administrative skills including research, information gathering, and collating and developing resources.		✓
Ability to use social media to promote the work of the project.		✓				