

Job Specification

Job title: Offender Outreach Worker

Hours: Full time (35 hours per week)

Salary: £30,110 per annum (C1)

Location: HMP & YOI Hindley (Greater Manchester)

Start date: As soon as possible upon completion of security clearance

About the role

To be responsible for the development and delivery of The Message Trust's activities within one of the region's prisons or YOIs in Greater Manchester. You would be responsible for coordinating projects and events, running outreach courses such as Alpha, discipleship groups, structured detached youth work, overseeing volunteers and establishing ongoing positive relationships with young offenders and adults.

Main duties and responsibilities

- To establish a good working relationship with the Prison Chaplaincy Team, Head of Learning and Skills, Head of Resettlement and other Prison staff.
- To set up and run outreach and discipleship groups working in liaison with the Prison Chaplaincy.
- To coordinate the delivery of outreach projects and events within the establishment.
- To develop and deliver faith based, character building courses that have been developed to help young people overcome destructive behaviour.
- To collate, create and commission digital outreach content, and upload to the prisoner "In-Cell Technology" system, and share this with other outreach workers.
- To supervise local volunteers in the delivery of The Message's activities; maintaining a commitment to their development, training needs and safety.
- To work alongside other voluntary agencies, probation and youth offending services and co-ordinate the resettlement of ex-offenders into a suitable local church, through local volunteer mentors and other referrals.
- To consider and make referrals where necessary to other projects or organisations including the Message's enterprise projects, assisting ex-offenders to gain employment, volunteering and, where necessary, housing upon release.
- To establish and cultivate relationships with young offenders and other prisoners as a positive role model ensuring a professional, approachable and mature attitude at all times.
- To network with other prison ministries and projects, locally.
- To ensure all activities are run in accordance with the aims of The Message Trust.
- To oversee the development of The Message Trust's activities within the establishment. This will involve proactively evaluating the project and the overall effectiveness of its delivery with a view to operational adjustments where necessary.
- To compile and maintain regular records of work completed using The Message in Prisons tracking systems.
- To work as a full member of the Message's staff team, attending all meetings, training and events as directed by your line manager, in cooperation with the Head of UK Prison Ministry.

- To meet regularly with your line manager and the Head of UK Prison Ministry and engage with other support offered to ensure accountability and pastoral needs are met.
- To be committed to continue professional development in areas related to the post and in consultation with your manager.
- Identify potential funding sources and actively seek contributions to the ministry from friends, family members and your local church.
- Be aware of, and understand (and use where necessary) the organisation's database, "Raiser's Edge".
- Be aware of, and understand (and use where necessary) the prison's computer systems.
- Keeping up to date with the job list and report weekly to department Manager
- Any other related duties may from time to time be necessary, at the discretion of your line manager
- Enter fully into The Message Trust team life, including morning prayers, monthly prayer days, evening prayer meetings and events
- Must be prepared, on occasions, to work away from home and to work one Sunday morning per month, and one evening per week.
