Kendal and District Debt Centre is recruiting for a CAP Debt Centre Manager 16 hours per week.

Join Our Team as a CAP Debt Centre Manager!

Are you passionate about making a difference in your community? Are you interested in financial wellbeing? Kendal and District Debt Centre, in partnership with Christians Against Poverty (CAP) and local churches, is looking for a dedicated and enthusiastic individual to join us as a Debt Centre Manager.

About the Role:

As a Debt Centre Manager, you will play a vital role in transforming lives by providing support and solutions to families struggling with debt. Your responsibilities will include:

- Community Engagement: Building strong relationships within the community and raising awareness about the debt management services we offer.
- Supporting Individuals, Couples & Families: Offering compassionate and practical assistance to people facing financial difficulties.
- Recruiting Volunteers: Inspiring and leading team of volunteers to help deliver our services.
- Sharing the Christian faith*: Explaining how your faith inspires and motivates you at work, and providing information, support, and signposting, where clients are interested in finding out more.

What We Offer

- A chance to make a difference: You'll be connecting with people in great need, whose financial situation is having a hugely negative impact on their lives.
- Training and Support: We, and CAP, whom we partner with, provide comprehensive training and ongoing support to prepare you for your role, and to help you succeed.
- Competitive Salary: The full-time equivalent range for the role is £28,572 to £31,000 annually, depending on experience, which, pro-rated for 16 hours per week, equates to £14.65 to £15.89 hourly. We also offer a generous employer pension contribution and reimburse expenses.
- Flexible Working Arrangements: We're supportive of working patterns that help serve both clients and you.
